

GFWC

The General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) provides volunteer services and responds to challenges as an innovative leader in education, growth, and development of women to benefit their children, community, and government. Since 1890, GFWC has actively supported legislation on child labor, women's suffrage, domestic violence programs, gun control, and guaranteed rights for the disabled.

About NWC

The Northford Women's Club is a all volunteer, non-profit club consisting of fiery and determined women who are outspoken, vivacious and politically and socially active. Members include a spirited mix of young family, career, and spry elderly activist women.

The club, which began in 1963, has grown to more than forty participants. The club has an elected board of directors comprised of active members that meet monthly. Members also hold positions on a variety of committees, including Programs,
